

CRY—Cardiac Risk in the Young

“Every week 4 to 8 apparently ‘fit and healthy’ young people die in the UK of undiagnosed heart conditions”

Cardiac Risk in the Young - CRY, was founded in May 1995 by Alison Cox. For four years the head office was based in a private home but as the charity grew, so did its need for more staff, presentation material, printing equipment and storage facilities. CRY also needed space in which to counsel families and meet people who could help promote and support the work of a new charity.

CRY's Vision 2007: to work with cardiologists and family doctors to promote and protect the cardiac health of our young by establishing good practice and screening facilities devoted to significantly reduce the frequency of young sudden cardiac death throughout the UK.

CRY desperately need people like you to help them to fundraise for their ECG Community Testing Programme, Mobile Screening Programme, Sports Cardiology Unit, the CRY Counselling Service and for their continuing programme of education and campaigning for ECG Testing of the nation's youth.

CRY's aim is to make screening accessible to young people. Help them by linking into CRY, or making a donation. CRY's details can be found below.

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT 2007

In Aid Of

Kindly Sponsored by Shell

Organised by the Overseas Societies Committee for the International Societies at Imperial College London. Special thanks goes to YOU for your kind donation!

Event Details

Date: 27 February 2007
Time: 7.00pm
Venue: Great Hall
Ticket price: £8 ( includes afterparty )

On one night each year, a variety of different international student societies from Imperial College London come together to stage a cultural extravaganza featuring cultural dances, music and skits from all around the world. Organised by the Overseas Societies Committee, this year's International Night promises no less with a host of entertaining performances by our very own international students, followed by a night of world music at our international after-party.

Our line-up of acts this year include the exotic belly dance, an Afro Caribbean dance, Brazilian capoeira, a Chinese orchestra, Cypriot folk dances, traditional Greek dances, a classical Indian dance (Bharata natyam)-ballet fusion piece and the ever humorous Japanese play. Special performances will also be performed by the college's award winning Dance Company and Funkology group.

In line with Imperial College's centenary celebration, all proceeds from the night will be donated to charities nominated by the international societies themselves.

One stage - a hundred cultures
